

Theatre Works

Philosophy

Theatre work makes fun and sense – because theatre works:

- ☺ as a method for teaching and learning, because it helps us, to find a distance to usual roles, pictures and topics und enables us to try new behaviours.
- ☺ as a motor for changes for persons, organisations and companies, because theatre supports the realisation of certain situations, shows its hidden aspects und allows us a new perspective.
- ☺ as a game, because learning and working may and can be fun!

Portfolio

- ☺ Theatre productions
- ☺ Improvisation theatre at events
- ☺ Business theatre
- ☺ Workshops, e.g. Gender Mainstreaming, conflict resolving
- ☺ Trainings for a better performance

The Mystery of the Leaky Pipeline

A Case for Samantha Spaeht

Content

Samantha Spaeht gets a tricky order: She has to find out why women disappear on the career path to a top position in science or technology. Rumours say they drop out through a “leaky pipeline”. Will she discover the truth?
